
WHAT IS AN LDA AND HOW CAN THEY SAVE YOU MONEY?

What is a Legal Document Assistant (“LDA”)?

An LDA is a non-lawyer professional in California who is authorized to prepare legal documents under the direction of their customer and file the legal documents in the appropriate court.

How can an LDA save you money?

Despite being a non-lawyer, LDAs are experienced and can provide affordable legal document preparation and administrative support. They are a good option for customers who are self-represented and wish to avoid the costly expense of an attorney.

Why Choose Us?

Navigating the complex family law system and forms can be frustrating. We are here to help simplify the family law document process for you. With 20+ years of experience and a genuine passion for supporting families through challenging times, our goal is to make this journey a little easier for you and save you costly legal fees. Let’s work together to take the stress out of your Family Law legal matters!

Licensed and Bonded:

The DivorceDocsOC LDA is licensed and bonded in Orange County, California (LDA # 619).

Key Roles of a Legal Document Assistant:

- Preparing legal forms and documents as requested by customers.
- Facilitating timely and accurate service of your legal documents.
- Filing documents with the appropriate court or agency.
- Providing general information about legal procedures.

Remote Service for Your Busy Schedule:

The majority of our services can be performed remotely. We will walk you through your documents and answer your questions by phone or video chat. You can execute most documents remotely and return them via email.

Legal Limitations:

LDAs cannot give legal advice, select forms for customers, or represent customers in court. Customers must determine their own legal needs before requesting document preparation.

Disclaimer -- DivorceDocsOC is not a law firm and does not provide legal advice or representation. Our services are limited to the preparation of legal documents as instructed by customers. For legal advice, please consult a licensed attorney.